Dear TCCS Community,

I'm pleased to let you know that for the remainder of this school year, while we continue with our distance learning program, we will be sharing daily "morning announcement" video messages, featuring members of our graduating class of 2020.

Videos will be posted on the TCCS website, sent to students via Google Classroom, and will also be shared on my social media platforms (Instagram, Facebook, Twitter). Please contact me if you need information on following any of those accounts.

Today's first video, which features our Student Council President Demi, is available online now at https://youtu.be/G4_P-2yBBo8

Many thanks to Ms. Torres, Mrs. Thomas, and the members of our student council for working together to come up with this project, which will be the first of several ways that we plan to showcase our graduates under these circumstances.

Thanks and have a great day!

Best Regards,

Ralph Gallo
