Dear Parents,

I hope this letter finds you well and that you are enjoying the changing of the seasons. We are excited to announce the upcoming TCCS Annual Fall Harvest Festival, scheduled to take place on November 21, 2023. Our Fall Harvest Festival is a cherished tradition that brings our school community together to celebrate the spirit of the season.

Our Upper School students have been hard at work preparing carnival-style games for our younger students to enjoy and we have no doubt that the festival will be a fun and memorable event for everyone. More details about the Fall Harvest Festival will be coming from our Events Committee soon, so please keep an eye out for those updates.

In keeping with our Fall Harvest theme, we are thrilled to announce that on November 21, the school will be sponsoring a schoolwide Thanksgiving Feast lunch for all students. The menu includes Roasted Turkey with Gravy, Cornbread Stuffing, Mac and Cheese, and Haricots Verts Green Beans. This meal will be provided by our regular lunch vendor, the North Jersey Friendship House.

If you would like your child to enjoy the Thanksgiving Feast lunch on November 21, you do not need to take any action. However, we understand that dietary preferences and restrictions may vary, and as such, we are providing the option for parents to opt out of the Thanksgiving meal.

To opt out of the Thanksgiving meal and have your child bring their own lunch on November 21 (or request a free vegetarian option instead), please visit <https://bit.ly/tccs-tf23> to submit your preferences by Tuesday, November 7, to ensure that we can make the necessary arrangements.

The Fall Harvest Festival and Thanksgiving Feast represent a time for us to come together as a community, celebrating not only the season but also the diversity and choices that make our school special. We look forward to sharing this wonderful day with your children and creating lasting memories together.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out to me at rgallo@tccsnj.org. Otherwise, thank you for your cooperation!

Thanks and Best Regards,

Ralph Gallo
Executive Director
